

Product Development, Product Maintenance and Mapping Services

Client: A leading B2B Service Provider in Atlanta, GA

Product Mapping Tool

OFS Engagement: Product Development & Maintenance

OFS developed a tool for the client which is an e-commerce solution for the paper industry that provides the benefits of speed, efficiency and transparency to the complete supply chain, right from paper manufacturer to the end-customer

Technologies: J2EE, Web Services, Swing

Team Size: Offshore – 6

Content Management Web Application Solution

OFS Engagement: Maintenance & Migration

OFS handled the client content director system migration and developed a component based layered architecture which helped the client to have maximum control over the system in terms of flexibility and scalability. System was migrated keeping in mind the integration with other enterprise system.

Technologies: J2EE, SQL Server 2005, Web Services

Team Size: Offshore – 4

EDI Mapping Services & Integration

OFS Engagement: Map Analysis, Map Development and Interface Integration

OFS has an engagement with the client for Product mapping tool to offer paper industry an Enterprise Application Integration (EAI) solution. OFS proposed the architecture to map the desired product with customer's product specification. Product details are maintained in a catalog, which aids in mapping the exact products for the customers. The client Technologies identified OFS as its technology partner and implemented the Product Mapping solution from OFS.

Map Types: EDI X12, EDIFACT, IDOC, xCBL, cXML, Papinet

Team Size: Offshore – 10 Mappers
